Death Claims Leading Citizens.

CHARLIE E. CANTER.

Charlie E. Carter, 40, died at his home in Castalain Springs, Wednesday night, March 2, after a lingering illness of Bright's disease.

Funeral was held Friday at the Castalain Springs Christian church, conducted by Rev. E. A. Elem of Nashville. The remains were taken to Gallatin for interment.

Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Belva Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Clark of Haydenburg, he is survived by four children; Prentice, Dennis, Charlie, Jr. and Windylean; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, of Difficult; three brothers, Eugene Canter of Willette, James Canter of Carthage and Dufford Canter of Woodburn, Ky.; and one sister, Mrs. John Williams of Bagdad.

Mr. Canter formerly lived near Gladdico, this county, where was in the mercantile business for a number of years. He moved to Castalain Springs two years ago, where he has been living on a farm. He was a faithful member of the Christian church and will be greatly missed in the home and church and by his many friends.

The bereaved have the sympathy of a large number of friends.

JAMES T. WEST.

Jas T. West, 81, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of this county, died at the home of his son Dillard West, four miles south of here Thursday evening at 7-30 o'clock, after an illness of only a few days of pneumonia, following the flu.

On the account of several of his children living at a distance, the funeral will not occur until Saturday afternoon. Services will be conducted by Bro. John W. Fox, of Clenny, after which interment will take place in the Pharris cemetery near the home.

He leaves a devoted wife, and ten children as follows: Lee, Jim, Henry and Mart West, of California; T. D. Joda, George and Dillard, of near Gainesboro; two daughters, Mrs. Plese Tayse and Mrs. Joda Robinson, of Kentucky; one half sister, Mrs. Maggie Williams, of California, and one half brother, Jas West, of near Sparta.

Mr. West would have been 82 years old sometime in July. He spent the most of his life in and near Gainesboro. In his younger days he had charge of the county farm for a number of years. He was always jovial and loved to meet and talk with his friends. He possessed a rich vein of humor and enjoyed a good joke on a high moral plane. Great kindness marked his bearing toward his fellow man. In fact a good citizen, a true husband and a loving father has gone home to Him that doeth all things well. His death is the cause of much sorrow throughout the county.

JOHN L. YOUNG.

John L. Young 54, one of the best known citizens of this County, died at his home here Tuesday, March 8th, at 1 o'clock P. M. He had been in feeble health for the past 12 months, but was able to get out at times until a few months ago.

He was buried Wednesday afternoon in the Fox cemetery on Flynn's creek, several miles south of here. Funeral services were conducted by the Masonic Lodge of this place, of which he was a member.

Besides his widow, who was Miss Lou Anderson before her marriage, the deceased is survived by four children by former marriages: Henderson, of Texas, by his first wife; Berry, of California, Gene and a daughter, Ione, by his second wife, and seven sisters, as follows: Mrs. Ben Meadows, Mrs. N. M. McCain, Mrs. E. O. Smith Mrs. Claude Kirkpatrick, Mrs. May Terry, Mrs. J. W. McCain and one single sister, Annie Young, all of whom reside near Gainesboro.

Mr. Young was a son of the late Henderson Young, and was widely known throughout this section. He piloted steamers up and down the Cumberland for a number of years and was considered one of the best pilots on the river. He served as high sheriff of this county for two terms, 1912 to 1916, and was one of the most fearless officers the county ever had. About two years ago he was appointed chief raider of the United States revenue force of the Eastern Division, but in a short time, was forced to give up the place on account of his health.

W. C. Spivey and family left last Saturday for Nashville, where they will reside.

IN THE SPRING YOUR

BLOOD NEEDS A TONIC

Winter Weakens Blood, Makes Faces Pale. Take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

THE BEST KNOWN BLOOD TONIC.

Drowsy Spring-Fever Feeling That Comes from Sluggish Blood Will Soon Leave You

As all growing things on earth shoot into new life in Spring-time, so do the billions of cells that make up each part of the body renew their vigor.

As you open the windows, breathe the Spring air, and let in the sunshine, the red corpuscles in your blood should carry more oxygen to the tiny cells.

The red corpuscles are tiny disc-shaped particles, swimming in enormous numbers in the blood. They carry oxygen to cells in all parts of the body, and they carry away worn-out waste matter. Sometimes, especially in the Spring, after the winter indoors and more or less sickness, the red corpuscles themselves need rebuilding. Gude's Pepto-Mangan contains just the ingredients to give them greater power to absorb oxygen and to distribute it throughout the body.

That is why it is such a good Spring tonic. It helps so much to bring back color to the cheeks made pale and wan by the necessary indoor winter life. It adds to the number of red corpuscles. With fine Spring days and Gude's Pepto-Mangan you gain in vigor and attain good health.

Don't go around drowsy this Spring. Take that good tonic! Gude's Pepto-Mangan. You can get it in tablet form or in liquid form at your druggist's. Both forms have the same medicinal value. Insist upon genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Advertisement.

MAXWELL—MARTIN.

Cookeville, Tenn., March 8.—(Special)—Former Mayor A. Gillem Maxwell of this city, one of the most widely-known and successful manufacturers and business men of this state, was married on Sunday in Knoxville to Miss Vena May Martin, formerly a teacher in the Tennessee Polytechnic Institute of this city. The wedding was quietly solemnized and a few of their friends in this city knew in advance of their intentions.

The bride taught for several years in the T. P. I. and is highly esteemed in this city. Her husband is one of Cookeville's most public-spirited and honored citizens. He retired from office last month after three years service as Mayor of Cookeville.—Banner.

Nix on the "Parley-Voo" stuff!

A FRIEND of mine.
WHO COULDN'T speak.
A WORD of French.
WENT TO Paris.
AND THE first time.
HE HAD to get.
A HAIRCUT and shave.
HE PRACTICED an hour.
MAKING SIGNS.
IN THE looking glass.
SO THE French barber.
WOULD UNDERSTAND him.
AND THEN he went in.
AND WIGGLED his fingers
THROUGH HIS hair.
AND STROKED his chin.
AND THE barber grinned.
AND FINISHED the job.
THEN MY friend thought.

HE'D BE polite.
SO HE gave the barber.
AN AMERICAN cigarette.
WHICH THE barber smoked.
AND MY friend pointed.
TO HIS mouth.
AND SAID "Likee voo."
AND THE barber roared.
AND SAID "You BET."
I USED to smoke 'em.
WHEN I worked.
IN INDIANAPOLIS.
AND BELIEVE me.
THEY SATISFY!"

HERE'S a smoke that talks in any language and needs no interpreter. Light up a Chesterfield, draw deep—and more plainly than words your smile will tell the world "They Satisfy". It's the blend that does it—and you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere except in Chesterfields, for that blend can't be copied!
